Hotels in London

London is an exciting city with hotels to suit all tastes and budgets. Our select destinations are all 3-5 in quality, with many hotels near both Heathrow and Gatwick Airports. Our city centre properties are also close to the major tourist attractions and historic landmarks.

British Airways has some renowned 'prestige' hotels in London, each with its own unique character and heritage. We have a wide range of rooms and apartments available in the English Capital, with many options situated in the main shopping and theatre districts.

When you stay in one of our London hotels, you are spoilt for choice when it comes to sightseeing. From the London Eye, Tower Bridge and Trafalgar Square, to Buckingham Palace, St Paul's Cathedral and the Palace of Westminster – London's attractions do not disappoint.

We also recommend using our London hotels as a base for some trips further afield. Hampton Court Palace makes for an excellent day out, with visitors able to view the impressive mansion and grounds, plus lose themselves in the famous maze.

When it comes to shopping in London, those staying in one of our hotels will be in for a treat. From the trendy boutiques of Soho to the brand name fashion stores of Oxford Street, Covent Garden and the King's Road, the city promises much for avid shoppers.

Some of our London hotels feature top class restaurants run by celebrated chefs. But if you fancy a night out in a local eatery, you'll be spoilt for choice. London is a world city and menus reflect this. You can order international cuisine, or choose English favourites like fish and chips or roast beef with all the trimmings.
